

Dr. Robert S. Mendelsohn

Medical Critic, 61

EVANSTON, Ill., April 15 (AP) — Dr. Robert S. Mendelsohn, a physician, author and critic of the medical establishment, died after a brief illness at his home here April 5. He was 61 years old.

Among books he wrote criticizing organized medicine was "Confessions of a Medical Heretic," published in 1979. He also wrote a syndicated newspaper column.

A teacher of pediatrics at the University of Illinois and Northwestern University, he was forced to resign as director of the medical consultation service for the preschool Head Start program after criticizing public schools before a House committee in 1969.

Paul Manfred Meyer

Vocal Coach

Paul Manfred Meyer, a concert pianist and vocal coach, died of complications resulting from pneumonia, Wednesday in Paramus, N.J. He was 96 years old.

Mr. Meyer was a voice coach for the Metropolitan Opera from the 1940's to the 1960's. His students included Robert Merrill, Marian Anderson and Jan Peerce. He accompanied many of his pupils in recitals, and played the piano for many chamber-music concerts in New York. Mr. Meyer, who was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1938, continued to teach voice into the 1970's.

There are no immediate survivors.

Morris Crystal

Editor, 80

Morris Crystal, a former editor in chief of The Jewish Daily Forward, died of cardiac arrest yesterday at the Montefiore Medical Center. He was 80 years old and lived in the Bronx.

Mr. Crystal was born in the Ukraine and came here in 1922. He began working at The Forward, the Yiddish-language newspaper, in 1943 and became editor in chief in 1969. He retired in 1970. Mr. Crystal was known for writing on culture and political commen-

Braths

BALTERMAN—George. On Friday, April 15 in his 95th year. Beloved husband of Betty. Father of Rosalind, Harry and Lewis. Grandfather of Lois, Alisa, Helen and Judy. Also survived by nine great-grandchildren. Graveside service, 11 AM, Sunday, Mt. Hebron Cemetery, Queens.

BERGER—Morton, DR. An exceptional human being. A revered husband and father dedicated to his life's work and teachings. An unselfish individual devoted to his Jewish religion. He will be sorely missed by the multitude who were touched and inspired by his life. To his wife, Hope, his children Linda, Howard, Alan and George, we share in your grief. May you be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

Alvin & Debbie Rapp

BINDERMAN—Leah (Lillian). Beloved wife of the late Israel. Loving mother of Annette Kosowsky, Millicent Cutler, David and William. Adoring grandmother of Bradley, Susan, Marsha, Robbi, Judi, Deborah and Daniel and great-grandmother of Stephani and Samuel. Devoted sister of Bernardo and Rachel. Service Sunday, 10am at Sherman's Flatbush Memorial Chapel, 1283 Cone Island Ave, (Ave J).

BOLSTEIN—Moe. On April 14, 1988. Beloved husband of Rose. Loving father of Sandra Brenner, Dian Kaufman and father-in-law of Sara Brenner and Chuck Kaufman. Darling grandfather of Alan, Karen, David, Elaine and Lynn and great grandfather of Leah and Amanda. Dear brother of Lil D'vis, Shirley Gimpel, Evelyn Fiere. Paul Bolstein and Dorothy Bullock Services Sunday, 12:45pm Schwartz Brothers "Forest Park Chapels", Queens Boulevard at 76th Road, Forest Hills.

BRIDGWOOD—John B. Of Jackson Heights, Queens, N.Y., on April 15, 1988. Husband of Bertha Mulac Bridgwood. Father of Mrs. C. B. Hyland of Chatham Township, N.J. Brother of Ferdinand and Arthur Bridgwood, both of Queens, N.Y. Also survived by nine grandchildren. A mass of Christian burial will be offered at Corpus Christi Church, Chatham Township, NJ Monday, April 18, 1988, at 11 AM. Friends may call at The Wm. Bradley & Son Funeral Home, Main St., (Route 24) Chatham, on Saturday and Sunday, 2-4 and 7-9PM. Those who wish to contribute in his memory to Make A Wish Foundation, Morris Ave, Elizabeth, N.J. 07201

CRYSTAL—Morris. On Friday, April 15, 1988 at Montefiore Hospital. Beloved husband of the late Ethel Davidson. Devoted father of Raphael and Rachel and adoring grandfather of Emma. For Editor-in-Chief and City Editor of the Jewish Daily Forward and Editor of Di Zikunf. Funeral service will be held Sunday, April 17, 11:45